Discussion Questions

1. If you worked for an insurance company, would you be willing to insure a diocese against sexual abuse allegations? Are there some things you shouldn't be able to buy insurance against?
2. The narrator lied for the bus driver because she knew it would hurt the story of her school bully. Given the various factors, how do you judge the narrator for her actions?
3. The narrator's boss implies he would fire her for the ethical issues she has against insuring the church against sexual abuse charges. What, if anything, should the narrator have done in response to the threat, and why?
4. What exactly are the mental health issues the narrator has, and what would be the best steps/realizations for her to move forward to being a healthier individual?
5. Are there any additional questions you would want to ask before issuing sexual assault insurance for the church? What answers would permit, or preclude, you from issuing the insurance?
